Dear Editorial Team Manager,
PaArch's Journal of Archaeology of Egypt / Egyptology,

With great honor, I take this oportune moment to submit my manuscript entitled [Islamization and Development by Traditional Muslim Scholars during the 20th Century: The Case of the Bugis-Makassar Community of South Sulawesi in Indonesia] for publication in the coming issue of the PaArch's Journal of Archaeology of Egypt / Egyptology.

The study aims at revealing the role of traditional Muslim scholars in the development of South Sulawesi in Indonesia. To answer the research questions concerning Islamization and the role of Muslim scholars, the concept of a mediator is developed. Mediators are individuals or groups of individuals that hold the position of mediating or connecting the community members with the larger system of society.

I am sure this manuscript falls in the scope of this Journal; I therefore look forward for your favour.

Sincerely,
Mustori Bosra,
Universitas Negeri Makassar
