This study aims to determine the implicit meaning of Gregor Samsa's transformation into a giant vermin and how the situation affects his role as a salesman and provide everything that is needed for this study. This study aims to identify the implicit meaning of Gregor Samsa's transformation. It will use an 'descriptive' as the approach, which is 'given' or 'self-explanatory', but not the true meaning in the novel Metamorphosis. Gregor failed to conform his new role to his self assessment as a disgusting insect. The assumptions of Gregor's life as an insect are independent human. It can be seen from the situation, the writer also concludes that the first meaning and the second one is the same.
