Dear: Sally Jones
Editor of the Journal of Language and Social Research

Thank you for the fast email. And I agree to send my friend's article, but I'm sorry, just go through the email not through the submission system because it requires registration and submission process. (attached)

Well, I agree that the 200 USD fee is only an online version, the most important thing is we can access it and we can copy the file from your journal. About the time of publication, if possible is less than one month, we ask for help to be accelerated because my friend needs it immediately. thanks.

Best Regards

Syamsidah
