Dear Sir/Madam,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to the Chinese First International Public Environment Sculpture Collection Event in Peaceful Theme .

This event hosted to response to the “International Week of Science and Peace” suggested by UN. In this yearly event, public sculpture blueprint works will be assembled and elected from all over the world, then the outstanding ones will be awarded and exhibited.

We are so glad to know that you used to participate in some activities in China and played a very impressive performance to us. We are expecting you to join us as well, showing your creativity and imagination to China!

Thank you for your kind attention.

Sincerely Yours,

China NGCPS(National Guiding Committee for Public Sculpture)

Dear Dicky,

I am very excited to tell you in advance informally that, after one weeks of discussion and election, the work named "On the tips of the Finger" of you wins the second prize of Chinese First International Public Sculpture Context!

Big Congratulations to you! Thank you for your outstanding working!

We select THREE first prize, FIVE second prize and TEN third prize from 700 entries works. The award of the second prize including: 5,000 RMB bonus and a certification of the event.

Now we are going to collect the model for the following ceremony and exhibition. Considering the damage of the models in transportation and the long long delivery time, we discuss and intend to make the secision that make the awarded works model at Beijing. I Hope you could understand that and support us to make the most exquisite models. The making studio will contact you soon and we will send the picturese of the models to making adjustment or not.

Big congratulations to you again! Any questions, please let me know!
