Dear Colleague,

We received your article in good form. The next possible available issue is 2 2018. Your article is eligible for publication with major corrections regarding the following:

1. Try to make it more general in the subject of poverty. The case study of the Indonesian city refers to a local problem only.
2. Improve the theory regarding poverty.
3. Include more references from international journals
4. Edit your article in the template plate of the attachment.

Waiting for your reply,

All the best,

EI

Dear Prof. Thalassinos,

How are you?

I hope this email finds you well.

We already made several major corrections as per your suggestions, and attached is our paper. However, we cannot make the study more general as this study is a pilot study to a bigger poverty study.

Makassar was chosen as the center of the study due to the several reasons.

1. Makassar is the fastly growing city outside the Indonesia Capital, Jakarta.
2. Makassar is the hub, the center of Indonesia, which connecting the nation from the west to the eastern part of Indonesia.

3. It is argued that the result of this study can be generalizable to other cities in Indonesia once it is worked. Now the result is being reviewed by the Indonesian Ministry of Social Affairs.

I hope this can make our submission is succeed.

Should you need any further revision please do not hesitate to let us know.

Looking forward to hear from you.

Warm Regards,

Thamrin

Dear Colleague,

I guess it is now much better than before. Therefore to include it in the next issue you have to pay the publication fee. Let me check the article again and calculate the fee for you. As you know it is 650 euros per article with up to 2 authors and up to 12 pages. Additional authors and more pages than 12 paid 100 euros more per author and 50 euros more per page over 12 pages.

Cheers

Dear Colleague,

Please find attached your article in the final form from our side. However there are still a lot of misunderstanding making the article problematic. Please ask a professional English speaking person to make the corrections with you explaining what you want to say in Indonesian. As it is know there is no meaning in many parts.

Sorry but our editing team cannot imagine what is the meaning of the author. Act fast because if we don't received it on time it goes back to a future issue. Make all corrections in red ink in the attached version.

Regards,
